

MA Plot

Cook's Distance for Sample 1

The diagram shows a series of rectangles on a horizontal axis. The first rectangle is the tallest and narrowest. Subsequent rectangles are progressively shorter and wider, with their top edges forming a descending staircase pattern. This visualizes a process where a function is approximated by a sequence of simpler functions (rectangles) that converge to a limit.

